

WE ARE LOOKING FOR NEW VOICES:

NYSBA DISPUTE RESOLUTION SECTION DIVERSITY COMMITTEE CALL FOR SPEAKERS, PANELISTS, AND WRITERS

The Dispute Resolution Section is looking for speakers, panelists, and writers to participate and contribute to its meetings and publications. Please consider volunteering to speak, serve on a panel, write or otherwise contribute to one of our upcoming events or publications. We welcome new perspectives and are committed to presenting panels that are DIVERSE in terms of race, ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity, age, disability and religion.

If you are interested in participating or if you have any recommendations for future programming, please provide the information requested below. We welcome a variety of interests, perspectives and levels of experience. If you have any questions or would like additional information, please contact the Dispute Resolution Section Liaison, Catherine Carl at ccarl@nysba.org.

Name:

Contact Information:

Areas of Practice:

Level of Experience:

Suggested Topic(s) and Areas of Interest. (While it isn't necessary to specify a program, it is helpful to know what types of ADR you practice and your areas of particular interest):

Can we share your information publicly or with other dispute resolution groups or committees?