2023 Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg Beacon Award NOMINATION FORM

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

2023 Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg Beacon Award

Presented by the Committee on Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion

The New York State Bar Association's Committee on Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion seeks nominations for the 2023 Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg Beacon Award. The Committee wishes to recognize the exceptional efforts of a member of the legal community who demonstrates qualities that exemplify Justice Ginsburg. This nominee is an outspoken advocate for those less privileged. S/he is a pioneer—lighting a path for others to follow. S/he is honest, direct and speaks truth to power; courageous in the face of opposition. S/he is bold, innovative and analytical.

Nominations will be accepted until October 19, 2022 Please email a PDF of your completed nomination form and attachments to eguerrero@nysba.org.

Criteria for the Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg Beacon Award

The Committee will consider the nominee's efforts in one or more of the following ways:

- Their impact on the legal profession; and
- Using their platform to give voice to and create a welcoming environment for the underrepresented, regardless of gender, race, color, ethnic origin, national origin, religion, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, age, and disability.

Terms and Conditions

Members of the legal community with significant contact with or impact on New York State, whether practicing attorneys or not. Practicing attorneys must be in good standing; attorneys who no longer practice must have been in good standing at the time they stopped practicing. Nominees may be contacted for additional information or interviews.
