Kay Crawford Murray Memorial Award

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS 2023

The New York State Bar Association is pleased to announce that nominations are being accepted for the 2023 Kay Crawford Murray Memorial Award. In 2008, the Committee on Women in the Law (now the Women in Law Section) created the Kay Crawford Murray Memorial Award in honor of the professional and personal commitment Ms. Murray made to supporting and advancing the legal careers of women, particularly African-American women attorneys. The award honors a member of the bar who recognizes the value of diversity in the legal profession and who has dedicated her or his time to advancing the professional development of women attorneys. Current members of the Executive Committee of the Women in Law Section are not eligible to receive the award.

Kay Crawford Murray received the New York State Bar Association's inaugural Kay Crawford Murray Award during the NYSBA annual meeting in 2008. The award, which is presented by the NYSBA Women in Law Section, celebrates an individual who, in the spirit of Ms. Murray, recognizes the value of diversity in the legal profession and is committed to advancing the professional development of women attorneys. During the time Ms. Murray chaired the committee, she raised awareness of women's issues, spearheading a report that urged the Association to propose a model policy for childbirth and parenting as a guideline for law firms.

"Kay Murray was a tireless advocate for promoting diversity and inclusion and a dedicated mentor to women attorneys. Her efforts to promote diversity are an inspiration to us all," said Sheryl B. Galler, Chair of the NYSBA's Women in Law Section. "Through the Kay Crawford Murray Memorial Award, we seek to recognize dynamic and inspirational attorneys who are meaningfully advancing diversity and enhancing the professional development of women in the legal profession."

When submitting nominations for this award and in the spirit of the diversity efforts of Kay Crawford Murray, everyone is encouraged to keep in mind the 2003 diversity policy of the Association, which was amended in 2020, to read: "Diversity is an inclusive concept, encompassing gender, race, color, ethnic origin, national origin, religion, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, age and disability."

Recent recipients include: Katherin M. Crossling in 2022, Hon. Lisa A. Sokoloff in 2021, Tiffany H. Lee in 2020, Sandra Dawn Grannum in 2019, Hon. Lisa Margaret Smith in 2018, Catherine A. Christian in 2017, Dolores Gebhardt in 2016, Karen E. Simmons in 2015, Connie O. Walker in 2014, Hon. Sondra Miller in 2013, Pamela Jones Harbour in 2012, Nancy D. Peck in 2011, and Hon. Jenny Rivera in 2010.

The Kay Crawford Murray Memorial Award will be presented during the meeting of the Women in Law Section on January 19, 2023. It is mandatory that the award recipient be available for a presentation on January 19, 2023.

To allow for adequate time for review, nominations must be received by November 7, 2022 by 2:00 p.m. Please direct this information to the Women in Law Section, New York State Bar Association, One Elk Street, Albany, New York 12207. Applications may also be emailed to eguerrero@nysba.org. Additional forms may be obtained by email or by calling 518-487-5535.

If you would like your nominee to also be considered for the Section's Ruth G. Schapiro Memorial Award, you must submit a separate nomination form for that award. Nomination forms are available on the Section's website.
